

Scott W. Hagen Memorial Scholarship

“Live a Lifetime Full of Greatness”

These words were a favourite expression of our scholarship honouree, Scott Hagen. Scott conducted his life with others in mind, always available to help, always willing to support in any way required. Kind, caring, devoted, and generous, Scott was all of this and more. As a husband, father, colleague, or friend, he always saw the best in people and inspired those around him to be their best in whatever they were trying to accomplish. A lover of all things baseball, Scott enjoyed all aspects of the game and contributed to the sport by volunteering in numerous roles over the years. His favourite pastime was spending time at the diamond watching any one of his three children playing the game that he loved.

The goal of this scholarship is to provide assistance to any athlete to help them pursue their passion for their sport in a post-secondary environment. The beneficiary of the scholarship should not only be a player, but also have contributed by giving back to the sport in a volunteer role, exhibiting the same values and characteristics that made Scott the incredible individual that he was.

Scholarship applicants must be a Canadian citizen and a resident of Nova Scotia. Applicants must have a high level of academic achievement, and registration in an undergraduate program is required. Applicants are required to be entering their first year of post-secondary studies in the year following their High School graduation. A request for consideration must be accompanied by a written essay (500 words) describing themselves, and their field of study, and their vision of their future in that field. Contained within should also be an account of their involvement in the sport, as both a player and a volunteer, and how they help to further enrich athletes lives through experiences and services that honour their sport.

A $1500 scholarship will be paid in the name of the successful applicant, male and/or female, to the registrar of their school of study. Online application and supporting documentation must be submitted by June 15th, to scottwhagscholarship@gmail.com. Late applications will not be considered.
